DESCRIPTION:

The Barriér Jacket Men is a versatile winter jacket built to handle cold weather with ease. Featuring 200 g recycled Air Push polyester insulation, it offers dependable warmth for everyday wear while remaining comfortable throughout the day. Taped seams provide added protection from wind and moisture, making the jacket suitable for both urban environments and outdoor use. With articulated sleeves and a relaxed yet functional fit, the jacket supports freedom of movement. The adjustable and detachable hood allows you to adapt to changing conditions and style preferences, while adjustable cuffs and hem enhance comfort and protection. Thoughtful details such as zippered front pockets, a chest pocket with zipper and an inner zip pocket ensure everyday practicality. Barriér is a modern winter essential designed for reliable warmth, protection and versatility.
